WATCH the editor of the Era trade the rest of the pop ticket for votes for brother-in-law John.

WONDER how the Era would relish an actual conversation of one of its pet candidates over the division of a "jack pot"? It might prove interesting reading.

THAT pop move to trade Burritt, Ericsson and Mrs. Franklin for republican votes for Miller and Buchanan is not proving very popular—to at least some of the pops.

THE Omaha World-Herald has sued the Omaha Bee for $50,000 damages on account of the published statement that the former concern was insolvent. It is a good guess that the W-H. will not get fat from off the judgment which it will be able to collect from off the Bee.

IT is now said Frank Hilton, ex-state oil inspector has changed his politics and is at the head of a syndicate which contemplates the starting of a populist paper at Blair. Will the Era please make a note of this, and see that the new bunting is placed upon its exchange list?

"BELLIGERENT rights" have been granted a number of populists who are disgruntled at the action of their county convention, and the way they will make the fur fly in the coming campaign is causing that tired feeling to the ring candidates of the I-am-holier-than-thou variety.

HON. H. M. GRIMES, of North Platte, was nominated for district judge by the republicans at their judicial convention at Sidney, last Saturday. In Mr. Grimes the republicans present their best judicial timber and there is no doubt but that he will be elected.—Gandy Pioneer.

IN a general conversation last Saturday in the county clerk's office B. I. Hinman openly stated that since the populists had shown some local strength more disreputable individuals now claimed membership in that organization than were in both the old parties. While the above is not exactly the language used, it is the idea that was expressed.

THE following is going the rounds of the press: "A Swede friend of ours came to town the other day, having quite a sum of money in silver. A friend made the remark that he was a free silver man.
"Yes," he said, "I be a free silver man to-day. Tomorrow I may have gold then I am a gold bug; another day I have paper money; then I am a greenbacker; and another time I have no money, then I'm a pop."

WILEY MATTHEWS and S. C.
Wills are making a canvass of the county together, and it is needless to add they making both friends and votes. Newell Burritt will find after election that Mr. Will's plurality over him is fully 300.
As the pops are throwing everybody overboard except Buchanan and Miller, in the attempt to pull the two latter through, Mr. Matthews will not have quite so large a plurality, but his election is certain.

BUTLER BUCHANAN's attempt by insinuation to build up his reputation for honesty over that of his rival candidates will be accepted by the voters of Lincoln county for its true worth. Such pharisaical political efforts are those of the mugwump (whose continual effort is to induce the public that he is better than his neighbors), and they are never prolific of lasting results.
The average voter of all political creeds has a holy horror of the mugwump.

AFTER this fall there will be no populist organization in Lincoln county, and it is rather difficult to guess into which of the old parties Beeler, Gantt, Buchanan and Miller will attempt to enter. There is some doubt as to whether they will be welcomed by either.

REPORTS from the country precincts are very flattering for the success of the entire republican ticket, and are in line with the prediction made by this paper several months ago. The former populists are weary of clinging to a party which promises everything and accomplishes absolutely nothing.

THE Council Bluffs Nonpareil in view of the possible dissolution of one of the Omaha dailies is endeavoring to obtain a footing in Nebraska by adding an Omaha department. It will have to drop its publication of boiler plate matter and other evidences of bucolism ere it succeeds very greatly in the Treeplanters' state.

THE Nebraska supreme court has declared null and void the election of trustees for the state blind institution by the last legislature; and declares that the privilege of appointing these belongs to the governor. By this decision D. W.
Crane's tenure of office will be effected. Gov. Holcomb could show his non-partisan spirit in no better manner than by re-appointing him to the place, as he is most excellently fitted for the position.

THE ticket nominated by the local democrats Saturday, while composed of fairly good men, will not cut much of a figure in the campaign this fall. It is, however, probably politics for the democrats to have a party organization in view of the dissolution of the populist party after the coming election. A democratic ticket in the field will make but little, if any, difference in the majority the republican nominees will receive.

JUDGE NEVILLE, T. Furioso Gantt and J. Gusty Beeler have unanimously agreed that the editor of the Era does not know the difference between a riparian right and a pint of Posey county crabapple butter. This question of law has been settled by the judicial time after time, yet some lawyer anxious to win a fee from his client brings it up in some different form. Decisions affirming its correctness, by courts of high and low degree, "are as thick as autumn leaves in Vallombrosa."

IF THE diminutive editor of the Era will consult that grand old "pop" war-horse L. Stebbins, or H.
W. Hill it will discover that the county printing has been let to the lowest bidder in this county, and that it is a matter of record in the county commissioners' proceedings.
This while the aforesaid editor was back in Posey county helping his brother manipulate a democratic organette, and before he emigrated to Lincoln county and introduced "pap-sucking" methods. Come out now, honestly, and admit that you deliberately and willfully lied in regard to this matter, or will it be necessary to republish a portion of the county commissioners' record for 1886?

UPON the theory that a lie well adhered to is better than the truth, the Era attempts to deceive the public in regard to the attitude of this paper in regard to Frank Hil-ton's speculation as state oil inspector. IN THE TRIBUNE of Feb'y 12th, 1895, will be found an editorial expression upon this matter stronger and more extended than anything the Era has ever employed upon the subject; and today, the attitude of this paper is the same. If the Era will thus pre-meditatedly and maliciously lie in regard to a matter wherein it has so little interest, will it not much more readily do so in its support of county candidates wherein lies its greatest interest, yea even its very existence?

THE Era attempts to make the people believe that Newell Burritt has always kept the records of the county perfectly straight, yet R.
C. Hardin, who was his first deputy, knows this is incorrect, as does justice Peniston and a large number of others of our citizens. His lack of keeping up the record of chattel mortgages caused some litigation of which he was glad to settle the costs, and felt lucky that he had got off thus easily. It was his effort to shift the responsibility for this break upon "Dad" Hardin which brought about the coolness between them, and resulted in the latter declining the deputyship.

No man in the county is more cognizant of the fact than the editor of the Era, and at the time of Mr.
Hardin's resignation his sympathies were all with that gentleman.
Since Burritt's renomination, however, he has swallowed his growl with as few grimaces as possible, and is endeavoring to make the most of a bad matter.

"POP" SAMPLE BRICKS.
The only treasurer of Custer county who proved a defaulter was a pop and his shortage was caused by taking county money to pay electioneering expenses of pop politicians. For this accommodation he got a second term and doubled up his shortage. He would have been put in a third time had the stealing not become too public.
Then they got Huse Brown, a man reputed not very smart, but he has proved smart enough to keep the county funds where they belong.
For this disregard of the wishes of the ring, he is turned down and the one solitary honest treasurer the pops ever elected is kicked out of the back door of the court house just because he has been honest.— Callaway Courier.

IN plank No. 5 of the platform adopted by the populist convention held at Gandy, last Saturday, attention is challenged to "the able and efficient manner in which all populist officers throughout the state have discharged the duties of their respective offices." The populists have occasionally elected a good man to office, but as a rule the men they have given official positions have proven inefficient, grasping and in many cases dishonest.
You don't have to go away from Logan county to prove it. Ginn was a defaulter in the treasurer's office, largely through inability to keep the books, and it cost Logan county something to get his books untangled. Froman worked the clerk's office for what it was worth for Froman. For instance, in making the tax list instead of listing the lands in 160 acre tracts, as had been the custom in that office, he listed in 40 and 80 acre tracts, the milk in the cocoanut being that he would receive 4 cents for each additional description caused by the change of method, the additional cost being paid to Froman by the county. County Clerk Williams follows the old plan, listing in 160 acre tracts where it is possible to do so. County Treasurer Smith has been found thoroughly competent to perform the duties required and examination of his office by the state examiner showed everything in proper shape. Ginn and Froman were populist officers; Williams and Smith are republicans. Which party gave Logan county the best officials in these two instances?—Gandy Pioneer.

THE most far-reaching lawsuit ever tried in California is on the calendar of the United States circuit court of appeals at San Francisco for the present session. It is the struggle of the heavy creditors of the Union Pacific Railway company and its thirty-two branches to have the entire business of the great trunk line thrown into a common pool and administered as a trust fund by the federal courts.
The complainants are in part stockholders and creditors of the company. The allegations of the voluntaneous complaint against the receivers of the combined companies is full of startling announcements and vital statements as to the failure of unrestrained private control.
The inadequacy of the present management is emphasized and its inevitable trend towards bankruptcy portrayed. The fight is really between the Farmers' Loan and Trust company and the others against the Union Pacific railway and its branches. The suit involves thirty-two branches of the Union Pacific system, as well as the main line, and the plaintiffs appear as a committee for the minority stockholders of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, as well as for the Farmers' Loan and Trust company. The rights of plaintiffs originally accrued by reason of Frederick L. Ames' ownership of about 25,000 shares of stock in the railroads in question, together with his ownership of a considerable amount of collateral trust 6 per cent bonds of the Union Pacific company. The American Loan and Trust company holds $4,445,000 of these bonds, and several millions of similar bonds are held by other plaintiffs.

Though the capital stock of the Union Pacific company is alleged to be more than $60,000,000, plaintiffs aver that its indebtedness is so great and its mismanagement so apparent that its affairs ought to be administered by the federal courts. It is alleged that the government debts alone are sufficient to cause the forfeiture of the franchise. The fact is reiterated with emphasis that the falling off of the revenue is alarming, reaching as much as $1,400,000 in two months.
The complaint recites that the Union Pacific Railroad company is not able to earn operating expenses either upon its main line or its branches.—Journal.

NO FIGHT IN THE NATION

Commissioner Browning Sends Instructions to Agent Wisdom.

WILL KEEP PUGILISTS OUT.

Prompt and Decisive Steps Taken to Prevent the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Mill Being Pulled Off in the Indian Territory.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Commissioner Browning of the Indian office has taken prompt and decisive steps to prevent the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight taking place in the Indian territory. He has prepared a letter of instructions to Agent Wisdom at Muskogee, I. T., directing him to see that the laws are enforced, and to eject forcibly any intruders who may enter the Indian country for the purpose of creating a disturbance or of engaging in anything that may be detrimental to the Indians. The commissioner says that the statutes of the United States are ample to cover the situation and to prevent the fight.
The agent will have at his back not only the Indian police, but all the United States troops necessary to eject the fighters. The statutes give the United States authority to keep out of the Indian territory all persons whose presence would be detrimental to the peace and prosperity of the Indians.
The commissioner says there is no doubt that the presence of the prize fighters and the gang that would follow them into the Indian country would be very detrimental to the Indians, and that it is, therefore, the duty of the Indian office to keep them out.

Commissioner Browning was asked if the admission of Corbett, Fitzsimmons and others connected with the fight to citizenship in one of the tribes would make any difference in the authority of the government, and he said that it would not change the condition in the least. The government has the power to expel a full blood Indian from the territory if the peace and good order of the Indians require it.

Important Prohibition Decision.
TOPEKA, Oct. 7.—An important decision was handed down by the supreme court involving the validity of one section of the prohibitory law. The law of 1880 conferred upon the police officers the authority to enter any place where it was thought liquor was being sold and make arrests without a warrant. Under this section policemen have been in the habit of entering places which had fallen under suspicion and arrested whomever they caught in apparent possession of this place. The court holds that this section, in so far as it authorized the arrest without a warrant for misdeamen-ors not committed in view of the officers, is unconstitutional and void.

Denver Excited Over a Rate War.
DENVER, Oct. 7.—The Rocky Mountain News says: "Freight circles of Denver are excited by a rate war about to be inaugurated. The indications are that the Santa Fe will quote any rate that shippers are prepared to pay. Unless peace is patched up there will be a hot fight on. The Transimissouri association has been tottering for months and freight men agree that little attention has been paid to its dictates. From the Denver standpoint it appears that the Santa Fe management got tired through suspected rate cutting and proceeded to declare war to the uttermost."

Was Hung After Death.
DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 7.—The authorities have reached the conclusion that Peter Hendricks, whose body was found suspended from one of the railroad bridges here, was murdered. The coroner maintains that life was extinct before it was hanged on the bridge. No clue to the murderers has yet been found. Hendricks was a laborer, living near Slater.

"Omaha Kid" the Winner.
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 7.—Oscar Gardner, the "Omaha Kid," and George Stont of Stout City fought for a small purse on an island in the Missouri river, a short distance above this city. A small steamboat transported the crowd which witnessed the fight. Gardner, who had all the best of the battle, was awarded the decision in the 23th round on a foul.

Defaulter Caught at Baltimore.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—John Don Far-len, alias T. J. Franklin, was arrested in Baltimore for stealing $16,000 from the office of the Adams express at Torre Haute, Ind. The arrest was brought about by Pinkerton Detective John R.
Saville, who has been working on the case since the larceny occurred, Dec. 6.

Morrison's Case Continued.
CHANDLER, Neb., Oct. 7.—At the request of the attorneys in the case, the hearing of the motion for a new trial of Arthur Morrison, found guilty of the murder of A. V. Harris at Crawford, and penalty fixed at death, was postponed until the December term of the

ADVOCATES APPLYING THE TORCH.

Rev. Townsend, a Colored Preacher, Denounces Lynching of Negroes.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—"If the law is not allowed to take its course concerning our men involved in crime, the torch may be applied in those cities where the outrages occur," these words were uttered at the close of the regular Sunday evening services by Rev. J. M. Townsend, colored pastor of Quinn chapel, Twenty-fourth street and Wabash avenue. An audience of 1,000 colored people applauded the sentiment and rose to their feet to further show their appreciation of their pastor's stand. Rev. Mr. Townsend's sermon had been called forth by the report in the morning papers of the outrage upon Neil Smith at Chattanooga. When it was finished the pastor gave out the hymn, "Thou Sleepest Justice, Awake."

At the conclusion of the singing Rev.
Mr. Townsend asked the audience to remain a short time. "I want no one to leave the house while I am speaking." He produced a clipping from a morning paper, read the account of the torturing of Neil Smith, and then said: "This must stop in a Christian land. If the law is not to be allowed to take its course concerning our men involved in crime, the torch must be applied in those cities where the outrages occurred."

DUMPED INTO THE BASEMENT.

Serious Accident at the Laying of a Corner Stone at Loraine.

LORAINE, O., Oct. 7.—While a great crowd of people was assembled Sunday to witness the laying of the cornerstone of the new St. Mary's cathedral, a temporary floor on which many of the people were standing suddenly gave way, precipitating many men, women and children into the basement. One was killed outright, 10 were fatally injured and between 30 and 40 others were badly hurt. The services were just about to begin when the accident happened.
Fully 3,000 people were assembled on and around the platform, which had been constructed across the foundation of the edifice. The boards forming the temporary floor had been laid across the joists which were supported in the middle by upright posts. The supports broke and the floor went down with a crash.

Fully 300 persons were thrown into the pit formed by the sagging in the middle of the floor. For a moment everybody was paralyzed by the calamity, but soon there was a rush forward by those willing to lend assistance to the crushed and struggling people.
This made matters worse, for 50 more persons were crowded forward upon those who went down with the floor.
When the confusion had subsided somewhat, many of those who were able to extricate themselves did so by walking or crawling over the less fortunate.
